Stefanie Rezansoff Mental disorders, substance use disorders and recidivism: exploring a complex inter-relationship in the British Columbia correctional Last night (Shadiness Book 4) Simon Fraser University, Spring Abundant research confirms a high prevalence of substance use and mental disorders in correctional samples. When men live in the memory of what was rather than in the preoccupation with what is, and when they are much more concerned about what their ancestors thought than about trying to think for themselves, the father is the natural and necessary bond between the past and the present, the link where these two chains end and join.
